DIGITAL HISTORY

Professor
Cynthia Helder

Temple University | HIST 5152 | Fall 2021

16

Wrapping Up

Week of December 6th

Road Map

Revisiting course goals

Lab week group digital component demos

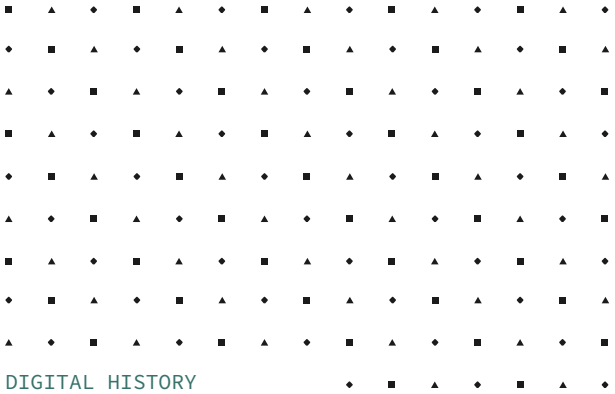

Digital components Q+A

Reflection assignment recaps

Reflections Q+A

Farewell!

Revisiting Course Goals

DIGITAL HISTORY

- Examine evolving theory and major debates within digital humanities and digital history, including issues of transparency, ethics, accessibility, authority, and legitimacy
  Relevant assignment category: Class Preparation (Readings, Annotation, and Discussion)

- Discover how to use digital projects to engage with multiple stakeholders and audiences and encourage conversations and collaborations
  Relevant assignment category: Group Project

- Evaluate and critically assess digital methodologies and tools through hands-on technical experimentation and skillbuilding
  Relevant assignment category: Skillbuilding & Practica

- Determine how methods of digital history might contribute to the advancement of research interests, scholarship, and professional goals
  Relevant assignment category: Reflection

DIGITAL HISTORY

Presentations

Lab week group digital component demos

- Why did you choose this particular tool/method/etc.?
- What theme, takeaway, topic, etc. does this digital component correspond to on your assigned page? Where will it be situated on the page?
- What kind of conversations did you have with your partner as you worked on this lab assignment?

5 minute digital component Q+A

DIGITAL HISTORY

Presentations

Reflection assignment recaps

5 minute reflections Q+A

Farewell!